2020 RAMI Foundation Employee Contribution Form

RAMI is the main contributing source for the RAMI Foundation. However, the organization is set up as 501(c)3 public charity and our employees have the opportunity to contribute if they wish.

Employees may contribute to the program with an in-person cash or check donation, or through a payroll deduction. If you are interested in a one-time cash or check donation, please see Brooke Karl or Rob Payne. If you would like to make a contribution through a payroll deduction, complete the information below, and return the bottom portion to payroll. A statement will be provided at the end of 2020 that summarizes your charitable contribution amount.
